- g. Set the service standard for the organization that reflects professionalism that also expresses values and attitudes, as well as positive behaviours;
- h. Equip employees to carry out their duties with due regards to the technical and professional standards expected by the customers. Encourage the staffs continuously to develop and maintain their technical and professional knowledge and level of competence; and
- i. Train and encourage the staffs/officials to act with complete integrity towards customers, colleagues, counterparties and others with whom they may come into contact.

The ethical conduct of all employees of BIFFL and the reputation of the profession depend largely on their approaches and attitudes at all levels. Standards of integrity, ethics and professionalism cannot be created or maintained by written rules alone, rather this depends upon the integrity and behaviour of those engaged as professionals in the industry. Thus, the responsibility of BIFFL is to adopt and uphold integrity and professional ethics in its workplace.

1.3.3 Serving Customers and the Stakeholders

For ensuring standardized services and ethical business development, BIFFL should identify its existing and potential users, side by side with the selection of service providers at various levels. Efficient and effective selection and categorization would enable BIFFL to make proper business plan.

1.3.4 As a Service Provider

- a. Analyse and determine customer base and review and understand its needs effectively;

1.4.3 Responsibility to Community/Society

All financial activities of BIFFL must comply with the recognized/established legal, regulatory, as well as social/community norms, customs and values.

1.4.4 Commitment to the Environment

Environmental and climatic protections are among the most pressing global challenges of the time. All of these are to be taken into account in all areas of lending/financing. Emphasizing on the areas of energy and climate change while lending, BIFFL would support the process of sustainable economic growth of the country. Employees of BIFFL must have firm commitment to choose and do the right things, along with the compliance of legal requirements. They must consider structural and non-traditional risks management options that inherent to financing and other financial activities side by side with the management of traditional financial risks, such as credit risk, market risk and operational risk etc. Risks inherent to environmental and social events/activities also need to be taken into consideration.

1.5 Property and Information of BIFFL

1.5.1 Property of BIFFL

Key responsibility of BIFFL is to protect and safeguard the organization's property, not to use it for personal purposes/gain / use and abide by the followings-

- a. An employee of BIFFL shall follow the operational and IT security manual meticulously while using property of the organization;
- b. He/she needs to ensure the fair value of assets while these are acquired and disposed-off if an employee works as member of asset acquiring/disposal committee;
- c. He/she shall not participate in the name of other person in the supplying of materials to BIFFL or selling old assets;
- d. He/she shall protect the pilfering of stationeries, stealing, embezzling or misappropriating money, funds or anything from BIFFL;
- e. He/she shall apply own judgment and ethical concerns in using organization's phones, electronic mail or computing systems for personal requirement;
- f. He/she shall refrain from using the organization's Letter Head for personal correspondence.

1.5.2 Information Security

BIFFL shall take reasonable care to keep secure its information from unauthorized disclosure and exchange. Any confidential information it receives on clients, or any details of the transactions of its clients shall be preserved with utmost security. Unless asked by any lawful and competent court/authority, exchanging or disclosing of information will be treated as a serious violation of ethical standard, and shall be treated as a breach of contract.

1.5.3 Invisible Property

- a. An employee shall not use the corporate brand and goodwill of BIFFL for non-official purposes like taking house rent, renewal of car license, buying own flat and other assets;
- b. The use of official designation for any personal gain is prohibited.

1.5.4 Intellectual Property of Others

An employee shall be cautious about the intellectual property rights of others. For example, he/she shall not provide performance report of one customer to other, not use logo of third party in purposes which are not allowed in the franchise agreement, not use the CIB report of third party and refrain from plagiarism of other bank's/NBFI's credit analysis for personal gains or purposes.

1.5.5 BIFFL's Information

While performing the official task, an employee of BIFFL may have access to information that is not generally available to the public or that is considered confidential for managerial or administrative purposes. He/she shall not disclose this information unless authorized by competent authority. An employee of BIFFL shall not provide any information to third party without prior approval of competent authority. He/she shall not disclose the unpublished and sensible information of the institution related to its performance, strategy, system, policies etc.

1.5.6 Customer Information

An employee shall not accede to or use customers' information excepting related business purposes. He/she shall protect the confidentiality and security of customer information.

1.5.7 Information of Government Agencies'

Any information of govt. agencies like ACC, NBR, BB, BSEC etc shall not be disclosed, to any third party without prior approval of competent authority.

1.5.8 Employee Information

An employee shall keep all information of the organization, either current or old, secret and confidential.

1.5.9 Suppliers' Information

An employee shall keep information about the purchase of goods or services confidential. Price quoted, methods, business policy etc. of the vendors should not be disclosed.

1.6 Use of Position

The officials in all positions of BIFFL shall have to abide by their respective Code of Conduct for the sake of both institutional and national integrity. It is expected that an official shall use his/her position and delegated power to do his/her job appropriately. Any deviations of this shall be treated as abuse of position and power. Generally, such deviations are found out for following two reasons:

1.6.1 Private Gain

An employee is supposed to exercise his/her power attributed to his/her position for the benefit of the institution as well as the country. But it becomes injurious and illegal if the exercise of his/her power relating to his/her position is led towards personal benefit. It is tantamount to corruption or misuse of power and position and it is quite contradictory to national integrity. Therefore, the use of position of an employee in BIFFL for any private gain is strictly prohibited.

1.6.2 Endorsement

The endorsement of one's position is also similar to the abuse of position. Sometimes, employees may not directly take any benefit by using their power and position. However, they may pave the path for benefits for other persons by making such unlawful use and authorization of position and power. The aim of an employee should be serving the customers or stakeholders without bias. If any activity makes his/her own people benefited unusually and thereby frustrates the others, it shall be treated as partiality and nepotism. So, an employee shall not be involved in such activities.

1.7 Conflicts of Interest

The employees must avoid the conflict of interest as long as they hold positions in the organization. Availing any kind of undue or illegal benefit/facilities irrespective of forms, shall be treated as deviation from the required standard of services. So, to keep the employees refrained from such a trap of conflict of interest, employers might administer the employee affairs legally & ethically, and compensate them reasonably. An employee shall have to refrain from doing the following:

- a. Performing his duties with a view to preserve/protect his own benefits at the cost of BIFFL;
- b. Involving in any kind of financial activities relating to his personal gain;
- c. Giving any advice, consultancy, direction or suggestion to anybody or to any institution that may cause losses to BIFFL;
- d. Any practice/exercise that may benefit him at the cost of BIFFL's assets either monetary or non-monetary;
- e. Doing anything that may damage the goodwill, image and reputation of BIFFL;
- f. Doing anything that may hamper the secrecy and privacy of any affairs/information of BIFFL;
- g. Involving or taking part in any business dealing like shareholding, profit sharing, partnership of any business company or manufacturing industry or servicing centre where BIFFL's interest is involved for their personal benefit;
- h. Getting any unusual or illegitimate benefits directly, or indirectly for himself/herself and family or family members, and relatives either explicitly, or implicitly by disguising identity;
- i. Receiving any charitable contribution from others and/or make any charitable contribution to his family members and relatives if those charitable contributions are made by/under his power and position;

- j. Receiving any gift (in cash or kind) from those who are directly benefited or assisted by his office or by his power and position.

The above noted issues are least in the list, but not exhaustive. Any unusual act made/done by the employee(s) shall be considered within the meaning of conflict of interest and be reviewed within the purview of offences.

1.8 Engagement in Other Employment

An employee shall not:

- a. Engage himself in any commercial activity or pursue such activity either on his own account or as agent of others;
- b. Accept any outside employment, honorary or stipendiary, without prior approval/consent of the competent authority at BIFFL; and
- c. Undertake part time work without prior approval of the competent authority.

1.9 Private Trade or Employment

1.9.1 Subject to the other provisions of this Code of Conduct, no BIFFL employee shall, except with the previous permission of the competent authority, engage in any trade or undertake any employment or work, other than his/her official duties;

1.9.2 Any employee of BIFFL may undertake honorary work in social, religious or charitable organizations and also may engage in occasional work of a literary or artistic character/nature, which may include publication of one or a few literary or artistic works, provided that his/her official duties do not hamper/suffer thereby. But the employing authority, at any time, may forbid him to undertake it or ask to abandon it if there exists valid reason/s to do so.

1.9.3 Teaching, Speaking & Writing

Employee considering authorship or publication of a book, article etc and speaking in front of the media which is not commissioned by the competent authority but which could in any way be connected with their work or employment at BIFFL should seek guidance from the management through HR before entering into any commitment. Any publication or public speaking of an employee should not tarnish the image of BIFFL vis-à-vis regulatory bodies of the country. The same considerations apply to the publication of material on the world-wide web and social media. No employee shall make any communication regarding the affairs of BIFFL to the press or any other media, nor publish any article containing data, comments or opinions on BIFFL or other affairs in any newspaper which may involve BIFFL, without obtaining prior approval of the competent authority.

1.10 External Pressure/Approach to Member of Parliament, Political Leader, Board Members

No employee shall, directly or indirectly, approach any member of Parliament or use any political or other type of influence or attempt to bring any influence of the Board of Directors for his/her employment, increment, promotion, transfer or any other personal gain.

1.11 Acceptance of Gifts and Awards

- i. No employee of BIFFL shall, without prior permission of the competent authority, accepts by him/herself, or permit any of his/her family member to accept any gift from any person that make him/her obligated in official position to the gift providers. If anyone sends gift items via postal or courier services, may be received but will immediately be handed over to the higher authority for disposal.
- ii. If any question arises whether the receipt of a gift places BIFFL employee under any form of official obligation to the donor, the authority will take action against such activity.
- iii. If any gift is offered by the head or representative of a foreign state, the BIFFL employee concerned should attempt to avoid acceptance of such a gift if, s/he can do so without giving offence. If, however, s/he cannot do so, s/he shall accept the gift and shall report to the authority for orders as to its disposal.
- iv. No employee of BIFFL shall accept any award, title or honour without the approval of the competent authority.

1.12 Fair Treatment of Counter-parties

All relationships with external counter-parties should be conducted in professional and impartial manner. Vendor selection and hiring decisions shall be made objectively and in the best interest of the organization based on evaluation of integrity, suitability, price, delivery of goods/service, quality and other pertinent factors. Employee should commit to fair contract and payment terms with them in return of good service at a good price supplied; in a responsible manner.

Employee's personal relationship with contractors, suppliers and vendors if any, shall be disclosed to the Top Management at the time of entering into the negotiation and should not influence decisions made on behalf of the organization. Negotiations with customers and potential customers shall be conducted in a professional manner and subsequently comparison of Cost & Benefit to be presented to the competent authority.

Vendors or suppliers shall not be used for any personal purposes, so as to have any conflict of interest while dealing with them.

1.13 Anti-Money Laundering

Money Laundering legislations criminalize money laundering in respect of several crimes including drug trafficking, terrorism, theft, tax evasion, fraud, handling of stolen goods, counterfeiting and blackmail etc. It is also an offence to undertake and/or facilitate transactions with individuals and entities involved in criminal activities.

BIFFL shall not do business with drug traffickers, money launderers and other criminals. It shall formulate Anti Money Laundering Policy following regulatory body's guidelines to enable all employees to follow the policy meticulously.

Employees shall exercise requisite diligence in selecting those with customers/counterparties while conducting business. They shall adhere to processes in place for checking the credit and character of customers and counter parties. These processes ensure customer's due diligence and ongoing monitoring of their customers to detect suspicious transactions during the entire period of the relationship.

1.14 Accuracy of Records and Reporting

All the employees shall ensure that records, data and information owned, collected, used and managed by them for the organization are accurate and complete. Records shall be maintained as per the policy of the BIFFL in sufficient details so that these may reflect the transactions accurately.

An employee shall assist in maintenance of appropriate records so as to ensure that financial transactions are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and that they fairly present the financial conditions and results.

He/she shall observe standards of good flavour regarding content and language when creating business records and other documents (such as weekly/ monthly/quarterly statement, e-mail etc.) that may be retained by the organization.

Non-maintenance of these records that come into employee's notice and any misappropriation or tampering of records, needs to be reported to the relevant authority. An employee shall not represent any report/claim for his/her personal gain or to protect him/herself.

1.15 Fraud, Theft or Illegal Activities

Employees shall be vigilant about the frauds, theft or illegal activities and shall not engage in such activities at any cost. If any such activity comes into any employee's notice, he/she shall immediately report the same to his/her immediate superior/s or management to protect the interest of the organization. He/she shall act as a whistle blower thereby.

1.16 Working Environment

1.16.1 Health & Safety

Adequate attention is always accorded to the health and safety of the employees, i.e. deployment of both physical and technical surveillance on premises to minimize possible threats to security. Physical premises are under regulatory requirement to conduct periodic drills for a systematic approach both to prevent any security breaches as well as to promote a culture of security and safety awareness. This involves managing health and safety care as any other critical business activity with periodic reporting, appraisals and improvements made.

1.16.2 Workplace Environment

Energizing the workplace is one of the key factors of BIFFL. All employees of BIFFL are responsible to keep the workplace friendly, congenial, transparent, free from harassment & corruption etc. and ensure the cohesiveness among the colleagues.

1.17 Team Work

Teamwork and co-operation is an important aspect of the work ethics in BIFFL. An organization shall leverage on the dynamics of collective skills, knowledge and experience to achieve the best for the stakeholders. BIFFL shall admit its employees as human capital and shall recognize the pivotal role that meritocracy plays in setting rewards and penalties for safeguarding the interests of its employees. It respects the incidence of conflicts arising in the workplace and seeks amicable resolution of contentious issues in a manner that is constructive, open, honest and ultimately beneficial to all parties involved.

1.18 Diversity

BIFFL shall respect all employees as unique individuals with fundamental human rights and support the cultural and ethnic diversity of its workforce. It shall believe that creating a work environment that enables to attract, retain and fully engage diverse talents, leads to enhanced innovation and creativity in the services of the organization.

1.19 Employees' Grievance

A grievance is defined as any type of problem, concern, dispute and complaint related to work and the work environment that cannot be resolved through normal day to day communication. Grievances may arise due to differences in perception, misconduct, unfair treatment, intra-personal problems of individual employees, dissatisfaction with working conditions etc. If employees have a grievance, they should try to resolve this informally first. But, if the complainant feels unable to solve the complaint informally and cannot reach a satisfactory conclusion through the informal process, he/she may pursue a formal grievance mitigation application.

1.20 Compliance with Laws, Rules and Regulations

Employees of BIFFL are expected to comply with the laws, rules and regulations governing the Organization's business vis-à-vis regulatory bodies. No individual is expected to know the details of all applicable laws, rules and regulations, but individuals shall be knowledgeable about specific laws, rules and regulations that apply to their areas of duties and responsibilities.

1.21 Fair & Equal Employment Opportunity

BIFFL is committed to provide equal opportunity in employment on the basis of individual merit and personal qualifications to employees and applicants for employment. Every individual has the right to work in a professional atmosphere that promotes equal and legal employment opportunities where discriminatory practices, including harassment are prohibited.

1.22 Harassment

- i. BIFFL is committed to provide a work environment where all employees can work free from harassment on ground of religion, age, gender, family background, ethnicity, personal appearance etc. BIFFL shall not tolerate any type of harassment by directors, employees, supervisors or others. All employees shall treat each other with respect and courtesy. Harassment in any form including verbal and physical conduct, visual displays, threats, demands and retaliation is strictly prohibited.
- ii. BIFFL shall be committed as employers to create an environment which is free from all forms of harassment and discrimination towards women. Any harassment or discriminatory behaviour directed at female employees based on their background, gender, religion, race, colour, ethnicity, national origin, age, marital status, physical condition, personal appearance, and status shall be dealt with appropriate disciplinary action. Harassment towards female colleagues may include making derogatory or provocative comments, physical violence, inappropriate jokes, and unwanted physical contact, use of epithet, comments or innuendo, obscene or harassing telephone calls, inappropriate content exchange through e-mails, letters, SMS, notes or any other forms of communication.

1.23 Zero Tolerance to Violence Whistle Blower in the Workplace

BIFFL shall prohibit any acts of violence or threats of violence by any employee against any other person at any time. Mutual understanding and respect toward all employees is an essential element for excellence in professionalism, existence of safe and healthy work place, and maintenance of a corporate culture, which serves the needs of the community. BIFFL shall bear zero tolerance for violence against any member of the workforce or its property.

1.24 Special Responsibilities of Superiors

In addition to responsibilities as employees, superiors shall abide by the:

- a. Duty of selection - Carefully select the employees for a job in light of their personal and professional qualifications.
- b. Duty of Instruction - Formulate obligations in a precise, complete, and binding manner, especially with a view to ensuring compliance with provisions of instructions.
- c. Duty of monitoring - Ensure that he/she meets the expected deliverable on regular basis and complies with provisions of applicable laws and regulations, on a constant basis.
- d. Duty of communication - Communicate to the employees that any violation of the applicable laws/regulations is unacceptable of and shall have disciplinary implications.

1.25 Fair Treatment of Customers

Treating customers fairly and without prejudice fosters good rapport and helps build long-term sustainable business relationships. Moreover, in the advent of global financial crisis, both local and global law-makers and regulators are increasingly focusing on ensuring that BIFFL employs fair practices in dealing with customers. This entails:

- a. Ensuring that communications are fair, concise, clear and not misleading so that clients are fully aware of the product features, relevant fees and associated risks for financial products and services;
- b. Creating products which meets customer needs and takes into account their financial situation, profile and risk tolerance;
- c. Providing quality customer service, delivering on service level promises and handling complaints in an efficient, prompt and friendly manner; and
- d. Identifying and managing possible customer conflicts in an open and clear way.

1.26 Privacy and Security of Clients/Stakeholders Information

- i. In order to provide financial services, BIFFL shall collect, maintain and use the personal information of clients in a manner which allows them to provide better and more tailored products and services and better meet the clients' financial needs and objectives. All information gathered from customers/clients during the course of providing service shall be considered confidential.
- ii. All information of an individual's employment in BIFFL shall be considered confidential unless it is clearly stated otherwise (or the situation arises whether he/she has been authorized to do so) and shall be used only for the performance of said job duties in line with all rules, regulations, laws and other policies governing the individual's employment. Furthermore, the information shall be kept confidential and secure even after leaving the employment at BIFFL.

1.27 Transparency and Accuracy of Financial, Tax and other Reporting

BIFFL shall ensure that its reports and communication is true, complete and accurate and shall not be misleading. It shall maintain transparency in its business operations and dealings with clients, stakeholders and regulators.

1.28 Interaction in Print, Electronic and Social Media

All media (print, electronic and social) inquiries shall be forwarded to personnel from Public Relations/Corporate Affairs/Corporate Communications or any other department which has been authorized to initiate contact with the media on behalf of BIFFL. It shall also be ensured that a consistent message in compliance with the governing laws and regulations is broadcast. The advent of social media has enabled people from across the globe to have information at a rapid pace which may at times be sensitive in nature and thus it is particularly important to ensure that social media sites and tools are used by the employees and management of BIFFL responsibly and with good judgment in compliance with its policies which restrict the disclosure of confidential information about BIFFL, its operations, policies and procedures, employees, customers and other stakeholders or any other information that compromises internal controls and safety requirements.

1.29 Guidelines for 'Speak Up Policy'

It is vital that BIFFL adopt a 'Speak up Policy' to uphold their commitment to the code and to maintain a culture of strong ethics and integrity. Any misconduct by personnel from BIFFL serves to harm not only the reputation and financial performance of BIFFL but also ultimately undermines trustworthiness of the industry itself. Management shall establish a formal policy, procedure, channels and open environment where staff are confident in raising concerns about any misconduct and are free from the fear of victimisation.

1.30 Personal Investments and Insider Trading

Insider trading is the abuse of confidential information and is defined as a malpractice relating to the exchange of a company's securities by individuals who by nature of their job have access to crucial price sensitive information which is otherwise non-public in nature and thus this gives them a competitive advantage over other investors and undermines the credibility of the financial system. As such, employees and other representatives of BIFFL are prohibited from partaking in trading of publicly traded securities (including the securities of their place of employment) for personal gain (or for the gain of the members of their household) if they possess material non-public information about the security or the issuer. It is to be noted that insider trading also encompasses giving ‘tips’ to another person, encouraging anyone else to deal or dealing on behalf of anyone else based on other non-public ‘inside’ information. Furthermore, employees and other representatives of BIFFL shall not make any personal investment in an enterprise (including in a public or private company that does business transactions or is a supplier or competitor of their place of employment) if the result of this investment affects or appears to affect his/her ability to make any unbiased business decisions in favour of his/her employment as thus resulting in a conflict of interest.

1.31 Arranging Seminar / Workshop / Training

BIFFL shall organize and sponsor seminars/workshops/debates and discussions in order to promote ethics, integrity and compliance standards within the organization in specific and the financial services industry in general.

1.32 Automation / Digitalization of Business Process

In today’s business environment, advancements in technology and administrative functions are increasingly leading to the automation and digitalization of business processes. It is imperative that BIFFL shall take necessary steps to ensure that any such advancement does not compromise the integrity of information security and that the guiding principles of the Code of conduct are duly complied with.

1.33 Employee Conduct outside the Office Premises

Employees and representatives of BIFFL shall realize that their conduct outside the workplace reflect on their place of employment and thus shall take necessary actions to ensure that the above-mentioned service conduct must encompass outside workplace activities as well so that behaviour/actions do not compromise the business interests, safety and security or confidentiality of their place of employment.

As such, employees shall exercise caution while interacting with outside entities so as to not be perceived negatively by the media, society or the communities in which they operate. Moreover, affiliations with certain entities which may result in conflict of interest or disclosure of confidential information are to be strictly avoided.

1.34 Grooming, Etiquette and Compliance with the Dress Code

BIFFL shall have an official grooming standard which is suitable to the culture and values of Bangladesh. For all officials it is important to realize that as he/she represents BIFFL, his/her conduct, grooming, etiquette, proficiency and overall service quality will add value to the employment.

1.35 Post-Employment Activities and Responsibilities

It is probable that during the course of their employment staff members and other representatives of BIFFL may be privy to sensitive information about the company, customers and other stakeholders and business processes which can be confidential in nature and also of proprietary nature for BIFFL. As per the Code of Conduct employees shall act with highest standard of integrity and refrain from divulging such information to third parties.
